2011
LITTLE SISTER
CABERNET SAUVIGNON
DIAMOND MOUNTAIN DISTRICT
NAPA VALLEY

2011 was truly a vintage that teaches one the importance of having a great vineyard in an ideal location with a stellar wine making team! Challenging, with more than average rain fall in the spring, it was the prolonged Indian summer that provided greatly needed ripening time for our Diamond Mountain fruit. While the quantity may be low for the 2011 vintage, the wines are well balanced, with great intensity, elegant but with lots of texture and brightness in the finish. The 2011 Little Sister is 99% estate Cabernet Sauvignon with just a smidge of estate Petit Verdot.

We raise our glass to our vineyard management team for their constant vigilance and care, and our wine-maker, Thomas Rivers Brown, for under his masterful leadership, a challenge in the vineyard now reaps incredible rewards in the glass and cellar.
